

DUFERCO STEEL PROCESSING (PTY) LTD.

DSP is a Steel Processing plant located in Saldanha, Western Cape. It is jointly owned by the IDC and a large Swiss-based multinational steel company, Duferco International Trading Holding (DITH).

The following vacancy need to be filled:

QUALITY ENGINEER

Duferco requires the services of a competent Quality Engineer for the Production Department.

DURATION : Permanent Position
CLOSING DATE : 19 December 2024
DEPARTMENT : Production

The successful candidate will be accountable to the Production Manager. To qualify for this position, the most suitable candidate must fulfill the following requirements:

JOB REQUIREMENTS:

- Minimum post Matric education of a National Diploma in Physical Metallurgy will be required or an Equivalent Qualification as per the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) and RPL – SAQA would be considered. (Any higher qualification in Physical Metallurgy would be an advantage)
- Must have at least 8 years–experience in Steel Industry and Quality Systems with a strong technical experience in a processing environment.
- Managerial experience would be an advantage.
- Good knowledge and understanding of ISO 9001 (2015 Quality Management System).
- Must be competent using MS Windows software, i.e. Word, Excel and Outlook.

Basic/Brief Job Functions/Responsibilities includes but not limited to:

- Responsible and manage the company's Quality Management System.
- Ensure compliance with material specification and customer requirements.
- Addresses metallurgical problems/concerns with suppliers of raw material.
- Manage and facilitates product enquiries and new product development (Metallurgy).
- Manages customer complaints and investigations as well as technical reports.
- Raising corrective actions, following up and effectively closing out
- Responsible for final quality releases and concessions to customers.
- Ensure ISO 9001 compliance & Certification through effective internal & external (TUV) audits.
- Facilitates supplier Quality Management System audits.
- Performs quality inspector evaluations.
- Manage the Quality department and laboratory.
- Responsible for budgeting and the controlling thereof.
- Responsible for the training and development of staff.

In addition to the above the successful candidate must also have the following attributes:

- Analytical abilities with good Planning skills
- Excellent communication skills and assertiveness
- Have a positive Influential approach
- Strong leadership qualities and abilities
- Must have good interpersonal skills and the ability to communicate well at all levels within the organization
- Ability to solve problems and trouble shooting in a logical, systematic and scientific manner and accident investigation skills

WE ARE AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY COMPANY AND WE APPLY EMPLOYMENT EQUITY PRINCIPLES AND STANDARDS. THIS POSITION IS ALIGNED TO THE COMPANY'S EMPLOYMENT EQUITY PLAN.

All interested applicants are invited to mail their detailed CV's with letter of application to the attention HR Practitioner at the following: recruitment@duferco.co.za

Applicants not contacted after 30 days of closing date of advertisement must deem their application as unsuccessful and will not require any further communication.